

COURSES > ACCA > CONTROL PANEL > POOL MANAGER > POOL CANVAS

Pool Canvas

Add, modify, and remove questions. Select a question type from the Add Question drop-down list and click Go to add questions. Use Creation Settings to establish which default options, such as feedback and images, are available for question creation.

Add

GO

Creation Settings

Name CHAPTER 1--FAMILY COMMITMENTS: MAKING CHOICES IN A CHANGING SOCIETY

Description

Instructions

Modify

◀ Add Question Here

Question 1 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text observes that we remain hopeful about family commitment because

Answer divorce destroys children.

most people are faithful.

✓ families are central to society as an institution and to our everyday lives.

infidelity is a sin.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 2 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question What is meant by "conjugal succession?"

Answer walking down the aisle

✓ a series of marriages for each person

juggling family responsibilities

joint checking accounts

◀ Add Question Here

Question 3 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Traditionally, both law and social science specified that the family consisted of people related by

Answer ✓ blood, marriage, or adoption.

symbolic definition.

nuptial contracts.

temporary agreement.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 4 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The U.S. Census Bureau defines a family as Answer any conjugal union.

✓ two or more persons sharing a household and who are related by blood, marriage, or adoption.

several roommates or cohabitators.

those having the same last name.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 5 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Who coined the term primary group?

Answer ✓ Charles Horton Cooley
Ernest Burgess
Harvey Locke
George Herbert Mead

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 6 Multiple Choice

Question In a ____ group, people communicate with one another as whole human beings.

Answer reference social secondary ✓ primary

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 7 Multiple Choice

Question Throughout much of the twentieth century in America, the ____ family has been considered the traditional family.

Answer conjugal ✓ nuclear extended
modified-extended

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 8 Multiple Choice

Question As families have become less traditional, the legal definition of a family has

Answer remained the same.
become more rigid.
changed dramatically.
✓ become much more flexible.

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 9 Multiple Choice

Question Today, only ____ percent of American households fit the 1950s nuclear family ideal of a married couple in which only the father is employed.

Answer ✓ 7
10
25
3

◀ Add Question Here

Question 10 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The concept of "household" is broader than that of "family" as it includes

- Answer
- ☐ pets.
 - ☐ material possessions.
 - ☒ nonfamilial living arrangements.
 - ☐ relatives who live far away.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 11 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Pets are present in ____ percent of American households.

- Answer
- ☐ 10
 - ☐ 25
 - ☐ 40
 - ☒ over 50

◀ Add Question Here

Question 12 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question In his book, The New Work of Dogs, journalist Jon Katz argues that, today, most dogs

- Answer
- ☐ have work responsibilities.
 - ☐ are not viewed as family members.
 - ☒ are companion animals.
 - ☐ do not represent "family."

◀ Add Question Here

Question 13 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text, almost 80 percent of families with children have

- Answer
- ☐ lice.
 - ☐ mini-vans.
 - ☒ pets.
 - ☐ nervous breakdowns.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 14 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The Census Bureau uses which of the following terms to describe a person or a group of people residing together?

- Answer
- ☐ family
 - ☐ nuclear family
 - ☐ extended family
 - ☒ household

◀ Add Question Here

Question 15 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text, in recent years, people have been

- Answer
- marrying earlier in life.
 - avoiding marriage.
 - ✓ postponing marriage.
 - cohabiting more than marrying.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 16 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Cohabitation has emerged as a lifestyle

- Answer
- that is stigmatized as unhealthy and immoral.
 - that is much more common than marriage.
 - that continues to be illegal.
 - ✓ that can be intermediate between marriage and singlehood or an alternative to marriage.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 17 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text reports that between 1990 and 2000, ____ percent of marriages were preceded by cohabitation.

- Answer
- less than 10
 - about 15
 - 25
 - ✓ over 50

◀ Add Question Here

Question 18 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question In 2002, the average size of a U.S. household was

- Answer
- 4.14 people.
 - 3.14 people.
 - ✓ 2.58 people.
 - 1.1 people.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 19 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text, marriage remains an almost ____ experience; 91 percent of adults have been married or plan to marry.

- Answer
- ✓ universal
 - surreal
 - rare
 - unreal

◀ Add Question Here

Question 20 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Over the past four decades, fertility in the United States has

- Answer
- stayed about the same.
 - increased dramatically.
 - ✓ declined.
 - fluctuated substantially.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 21 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question In 1957, the total fertility rate was about 3.6 children per woman. For the last decade and a half, it has been ____ child/children per woman.

- Answer
- less than one
 - one
 - ✓ around two
 - about three

◀ Add Question Here

Question 22 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text reports that rates of childlessness seem to be

- Answer
- increasing.
 - ✓ leveling off.
 - decreasing.
 - fluctuating.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 23 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text reports that divorce rates

- Answer
- continue to increase annually.
 - are much lower today than in the past.
 - ✓ have stabilized, although they remain at high levels.
 - are skyrocketing.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 24 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The divorce rate

- Answer ✓ has been in decline for more than two decades.
- continues to increase over time.
 - will probably never level off.
 - will always remain at 50 percent of first marriages.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 25 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question ____ Americans are most likely of all age groups to be living alone.

Answer

- Teenaged
- College-age
- ✓ Middle-age
- Older

◀ Add Question Here

Question 26

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Some states provide some state-level spousal rights to same-sex couples, while the state of ____ now allows same-sex marriages.

Answer

- Kansas
- ✓ Massachusetts
- Hawaii
- Washington

◀ Add Question Here

Question 27

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The definition of family adopted by the authors of this text includes those which share all but which of the following elements:

Answer

- form an economic unit and care for any young
- consider their identity to be significantly attached to the group
- ✓ have the same name and background
- commit to maintaining that group over time

◀ Add Question Here

Question 28

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text concludes that the best way to make decisions about our personal lives is to make them

Answer

- by default.
- ✓ knowledgeably.
- slowly.
- after consulting close family members.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 29

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text, over time, cohabitation has become

Answer

- ✓ "mainstream."
- "secondary."
- "prohibited."
- "unlikely."

◀ Add Question Here

Question 30

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Through the lens of social scientific research, individual choices are shaped by

- Answer
- unknown forces.
 - deep, inner drives.
 - ✓ the social context in which they are made.
 - schooling.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 31 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Which is the phrase used to describe economic and social forces which limit personal choices?

- Answer
- media overload
 - mass confusion
 - ✓ structural constraints
 - cultural baggage

◀ Add Question Here

Question 32 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Compared with today, in the 1950s and early 1960s, people tended to

- Answer
- ✓ marry earlier.
 - marry later.
 - marry someone from a different ethnic background.
 - marry after cohabitation.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 33 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text's discussion of how social factors influence people's personal choices,

- Answer
- it is always more difficult to make the common choice.
 - ✓ social factors can expand people's options.
 - social factors never limit people's options.
 - some people do not make choices.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 34 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Unconscious decisions are called

- Answer
- mindless decisions.
 - superego decisions.
 - ✓ choosing by default.
 - knowledgeable decisions.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 35 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Choices made ____ are ones that people make when they are not aware of all the alternatives or when they pursue the proverbial path of least resistance.

Answer

- ✓ by default
- knowledgeably
- wisely
- responsibly

◀ Add Question Here

Question 36

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Although most people have made at least some decisions by default, almost everyone can recall having the opposite experience, which is

Answer

- not being able to make a decision.
- ✓ choosing knowledgeably.
- being confused.
- allowing someone else to make the choice.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 37

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following is NOT one of the steps involved with making knowledgeable choices?

Answer

- ✓ Try to avoid making a decision if possible.
- Recognize the social pressures that may influence personal choices.
- Consider the consequences of each alternative.
- Attempt to clarify your own values.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 38

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Which of these does NOT contribute to young adults continuing to live with their parents or to move back home?

Answer

- extended education
- delayed marriage
- financial pressures like high housing costs
- ✓ personal decorating preferences

◀ Add Question Here

Question 39

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The emotional dimension of decision making is referred to in the text as the

Answer

- craziness gene.
- ✓ gut factor.
- ga-ga principle.
- no-think dimension.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 40

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text observes that once a choice is made and a person acts on it, the process is not necessarily complete. The component of decision making that is involved here is referred to as

Answer

- default.
- panic.
- ✓ rechecking.
- emotion.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 41

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text indicates that, today, we view adulthood as a timeAnswer

- of incredible confusion.
- characterized by fear and doubt.
- of crisis.
- ✓ with potential for continued personal development, growth, and change.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 42

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Life in American families reflects a tension in American culture between family solidarity andAnswer

- ✓ individual freedom.
- the prenuptial contract.
- divorce.
- childlessness.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 43

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Family togetherness, stability, and loyalty are all examples ofAnswer

- proscriptive norms.
- ✓ family values.
- self-fulfillment values.
- outdated norms.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 44

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Placing family well-being over individual interests and preferences is termedAnswer

- marriage priority.
- the kinship orientation.
- the family-focused approach.
- ✓ familism.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 45

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question When persons think in terms of seeking primarily personal--as opposed to communal or group--happiness and goals, this reflects which orientation?

Answer

- familistic
- ✓ individualistic
- kinship
- negotiated

 Add Question Here

Question 46

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Parents, especially, and siblings and other relatives are usually highly influential in developing a child's _____, or that child's sense of worth and value.

Answer

- ✓ self-concept
- genetic code
- nickname
- temperament

 Add Question Here

Question 47

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text points out that families create, store, preserve, and pass on particular objects, events, or rituals that members consider relevant to them. This refers to which function of the family?

Answer

- status conferring
- affection
- ✓ archival
- economic

 Add Question Here

Question 48

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Scholars and advocates with a "_____" perspective point to what they see as a negative cultural change accentuated by the self-indulgence of the baby boom generation.

Answer

- family change
- boomer fat
- familistic
- ✓ family decline

 Add Question Here

Question 49

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Scholars and advocates with a "_____" perspective point see constant evolution as normal.

Answer

- family change
- ✓ pessimistic
- familistic
- family decline

 Add Question Here

Question 50

Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question A majority of children live in ____ households.

Answer

- divorced
- single-mother
- single-father
- ✓ two-parent

◀ Add Question Here

Question 51 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Over the last five years, the proportion of children living in single parent families has

Answer

- ✓ stabilized.
- grown.
- declined.
- fluctuated.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 52 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Compared to the recent past, children are ____ likely to live with a grandparent today.

Answer

- somewhat less
- far less
- equally
- ✓ more

◀ Add Question Here

Question 53 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Many households containing grandparents are ____ family households, which include other relatives besides parents and children.

Answer

- modern
- nuclear
- ✓ extended
- blended

◀ Add Question Here

Question 54 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Children are ____ likely than the general population or the elderly to be living in poverty.

Answer

- ✓ more
- far less
- somewhat less
- equally

◀ Add Question Here

Question 55 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question During the 1950s, nonmarital pregnancy rates were ____ in comparison with today.

Answer

- ✓ higher
- slightly lower
- much lower
- the same

◀ Add Question Here

Question 56 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Data from a longitudinal study suggest that, since the 1970s, an earlier trend in individualism has

Answer

- stabilized.
- ✓ reversed.
- not changed.
- increased.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 57 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Over the past several decades,

Answer ✓ the divorce rate has declined somewhat.
the rate of nonmarital childbearing has increased.
there has been a dramatic increase in teen birth rates.
changes in the family have basically accelerated.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 58 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question The text points out that shifts in the balance of individuality and familism have meant that family lives have become

Answer

- more predictable.
- more functional.
- ✓ less predictable.
- less functional.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 59 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Those with a "family change" perspective view the family as ____.

Answer

- declining rapidly
- ✓ "an adaptable institution"
- "a rigid institution"
- slowly and steadily getting worse

◀ Add Question Here

Question 60 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Family change is attributed to which of the following influences?

Answer

- declining mental health
- individuals who do not wish to live in families
- hopelessness
- ✓ economic trends and cultural changes

◀ Add Question Here

Question 61 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following is attributed to the U.S. by "family change" scholars?

Answer

- patriotism as a source of family pride
- declining values in family matters
- ✓ inadequate support for families, when compared to other advanced industrial countries
- rigid traditional ideas of family

◀ Add Question Here

Question 62 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question A person who believed in the "family decline" theory might say the following:

Answer ✓

- "There has been a serious breakdown in marriage and family values."
- "Family life isn't getting worse, it just adjusts to the times."
- "Families today are better off than in the past."
- "There is no marriage crisis."

◀ Add Question Here

Question 63 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question Someone who is a "family change" advocate might say the following:

Answer

- "Our nation is in a crisis; marriages aren't surviving like they used to."
- ✓ "The family is better than ever at adapting to new challenges."
- "Times were much better for families in the 50's and 60's."
- "Before long, marriage won't even be around as an institution."

◀ Add Question Here

Question 64 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question If you wanted to make a knowledgeable decision about choosing which class to take,

Answer

- take the first class which is open and will fit your schedule.
- find out what your friends are taking, and do the same.
- wait until the last possible minute, and then let your advisor find a class.
- ✓ look through the catalog at all the possibilities, consider what will benefit you in the future, and register early to get the class you consider best.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 65 Multiple Choice

Modify

Remove

Question What factor may cause a father to make choices about his family "by default"?

Answer Careful consideration of family needs and personal time.
✓ Strong day-to-day pressures on the job cutting into time at home.
Remembering how important his wife and children are to him, and acting on it.
Ignoring the phone, television and computer in order to talk at the dinner table.

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 66 Multiple Choice

Question Family diversity has progressed to the point that there is

Answer a breakdown in communal values and family bonds.
ethnic differences in most family members.
✓ no typical family form today.
confusion and distress among sociologists about what to study.

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 67 Multiple Choice

Question Because adults change, marriages and families are

Answer ✓ not static.
falling apart.
hoped to be always stable and reliable.
hard to study.

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 68 Multiple Choice

Question Which of the following is NOT one of the four themes of the textbook?

Answer Personal decisions must be made throughout the life course.
People are influenced by the society around them.
We live in a society characterized by considerable change.
✓ Personal decision making has little impact on society.

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 69 Multiple Choice

Question People are influenced by the society around them. Societal or structural conditions can limit or ____ our options.

Answer dismiss ✓ expand destroy belittle

◀ Add Question Here

Modify

Remove

Question 70 Multiple Choice

Question We live in a society characterized by ____ change, including increased ethnic, economic, and family diversity.

Answer

- little
- slight
- ✓ considerable
- negligible

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 71 True/FalseModify
Remove

Question Maintaining a family requires both commitment and knowledge of what you're doing.

Answer

- ✓ True
- False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 72 True/FalseModify
Remove

Question The authors of the text basically accept Burgess and Locke's definition of family as interaction occurring primarily in the context of traditional social roles.

Answer

- True
- ✓ False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 73 True/FalseModify
Remove

Question Today, about 50 percent of families fit the model of intact marriage, children, and husband-breadwinner and wife-homemaker.

Answer

- True
- ✓ False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 74 True/FalseModify
Remove

Question The most common household type today is that of married couples without children.

Answer

- ✓ True
- False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 75 True/FalseModify
Remove

Question Single-person households now represent a quarter of American households.

Answer

- ✓ True
- False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 76 True/FalseModify
Remove

Question Pets are present in less than half of all American households.

Answer

True

✓ False

 Add Question HereQuestion 77 True/False

Modify

Remove

Question People have been postponing marriage in recent years.Answer

✓ True

False

 Add Question HereQuestion 78 True/False

Modify

Remove

Question A much higher proportion of older women than older men are married.Answer

True

✓ False

 Add Question HereQuestion 79 True/False

Modify

Remove

Question As families have become less rigidly structured, people have made fewer choices "once and for all."Answer

✓ True

False

 Add Question HereQuestion 80 True/False

Modify

Remove

Question Structural constraints (economic and social forces) cannot influence personal choices.Answer

True

✓ False

 Add Question HereQuestion 81 True/False

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text, personal decisions must be made throughout the life course.Answer

✓ True

False

 Add Question HereQuestion 82 True/False

Modify

Remove

Question Societal or structural conditions can both limit and expand people's options.Answer

✓ True

False

 Add Question Here

Question 83

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question Unconscious decisions are called "choosing by default."

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question Here

Question 84

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question Choosing by default can occur when we choose the path of least resistance or do the easiest thing.

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question Here

Question 85

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question According to the text, you should never listen to the emotional dimension of decision making, sometimes called the "gut-factor."

Answer

True
✓ False

◀ Add Question Here

Question 86

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question In a family setting, development and change involve more than one individual.

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question Here

Question 87

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question The text points out that the best way to make choices is by default.

Answer

True
✓ False

◀ Add Question Here

Question 88

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question In a family, one of the things that must be negotiated is personal privacy.

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question Here

Question 89

True/False

Modify

Remove

Question Research shows that parents, siblings and other relatives influence a child's self-concept, having a profound influence on personal identity.

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 90 True/False

Modify
Remove

Question According to the text, married life is far more complex than the traditional image commonly portrayed.

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 91 True/False

Modify
Remove

Question Personal decision making feeds back into society and changes it.

Answer

✓ True
False

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 92 Fill in the Blank

Modify
Remove

Question A(n) _____ is any group in which there is a close, face-to-face relationship.

Answer

primary group

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 93 Fill in the Blank

Modify
Remove

Question The U.S. Census Bureau defines a family as two or more persons related by blood, marriage, or adoption who share a(n) _____.

Answer

household

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 94 Fill in the Blank

Modify
Remove

Question The _____ family consists of husband, wife, and children in one household.

Answer

nuclear

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 95 Fill in the Blank

Modify
Remove

Question _____, or economic and social forces, can limit personal choices.

Answer

Structural constraints

◀ Add Question HereQuestion 96 Fill in the Blank

Modify
Remove

Question Our individual choices can have an influence on _____.

Answer

society

◀ Add Question Here

Question 97 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question A(n) _____ is any sexually expressive, parent-child, or other kin relationships in which people--usually related by ancestry, marriage, or adoption--form an economic unit and care for any young, consider their identity to be significantly attached to the group, and are committed to maintaining that group over time.

Answer _____ family

◀ Add Question Here

Question 98 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Unconscious decisions are called choosing _____.

Answer _____ by default

◀ Add Question Here

Question 99 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Although most people have made at least some decisions by default, almost everyone can recall having the opposite experience: _____.

Answer _____ choosing knowledgeably

◀ Add Question Here

Question 100 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Family togetherness, stability, and loyalty are all _____.

Answer _____ communal values

◀ Add Question Here

Question 101 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Placing family well-being over individual interests and preferences is termed _____.

Answer _____ familism

◀ Add Question Here

Question 102 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Individualistic values are also referred to as _____ values.

Answer _____ self-fulfillment

◀ Add Question Here

Question 103 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question The _____ family function refers to families creating, storing, preserving, and passing on particular objects, events, or rituals that members consider relevant to their personal identities and to maintaining the family as a unique experiential reality or group.

Answer _____ archival

◀ Add Question Here

Question 104 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Self-indulgence and self-interest has led to family _____.

Answer decline

◀ Add Question Here

Question 105 Fill in the Blank

Modify

Remove

Question Some family experts do not believe the family is in decline, but focus on family _____.

Answer change

◀ Add Question Here

Question 106 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question The text points out that there is no "typical" family. Explain this statement.

Answer Answer not provided.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 107 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question First, distinguish between personal troubles and societal influences. Give an example of each. Second, distinguish between social influences and personal choices. Give an example of each.

Answer Answer not provided.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 108 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question The text points out that some choices are made by default, while others are made knowledgeably. Explain the difference and provide at least one illustration of each category.

Answer Answer not provided.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 109 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question Using the text's discussion as a guide, address the question, "Is the family declining or is the family changing?"

Answer Answer not provided.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 110 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question What is the difference between individualism and familism? Provide an illustration of each.

Answer Answer not provided.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 111 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question Compare and contrast the traditional definition of the family with the definition preferred by the authors of your textbook.

Answer Answer not provided.

◀ Add Question Here

Question 112 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question Write an essay in which you compare nuclear family and family diversity. Based on the text's discussion, why is it essential that we understand the differences between these conceptualizations?

Answer Answer not provided.

 Add Question HereQuestion 113 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question How does the definition of family have practical and economic consequences for individuals in everyday life? Provide at least two examples utilizing the issues involved.

Answer Answer not provided.

 Add Question HereQuestion 114 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question Suppose you were faced with a decision about an unplanned pregnancy. Explain the process you would use to choose knowledgeably. Include in your discussion the major components of knowledgeable decision making.

Answer Answer not provided.

 Add Question HereQuestion 115 Essay

Modify

Remove

Question What is the archival function of families? Using your own family, or one with which you are familiar; provide several examples of this function.

Answer Answer not provided.

 Add Question Here

OK