Pool Canvas

Add, modify, and remove questions. Select a question type from the Add Question drop-down list and click Go to add questions. Use Creation Settings to establish which default options, such as feedback and images, are available for question creation.

Add Calculated Formula GO | Creation Settings

Name Chapter 1--Introduction to Professional Ethics
Description
Instructions

Modify

Add Question Here

Question 1 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question _____ is concerned with perspectives of right and proper conduct and involves an evaluation of actions on the basis of some broader cultural context or religious standard.

Answer
- Ethical conduct
- Community standards
- ✓ Morality
- Professionalism

Add Question Here

Question 2 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Robert runs into the office, unprepared and frustrated because he is late for his weekly appointment with his first client of the day. He is consistently late for his appointments and his behavior is:

Answer
- immoral.
- illegal.
- unethical.
- ✓ unprofessional.

Add Question Here

Question 3 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question James and Mary were in counseling for marital problems. The counselor decided to meet each partner in an individual session before meeting them as a couple. James confided that he was HIV-positive and was not going to tell his spouse because she would know that he had been unfaithful. The counselor decided to break confidentially after attempts to encourage James to inform his wife of his condition were unsuccessful. The counselor's action:

Answer
- was illegal and may result in sanctions.
- ✓ may be considered ethical, yet the practitioner could be in violation of a legal standard.
- was unethical since confidentiality was broken.
- was ethical and meets the American Counseling Association standard regarding contagious diseases which states that practitioners must report when a client is HIV positive.

Add Question Here

Question 4 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Elizabeth, a beginning practitioner, counsels in a manner in which she merely acts in compliance with the law and follows minimal ethical standards. She is at the first level of ethical functioning, which is:

Answer
- personal ethics.
- aspiration ethics.
- ✓ mandatory ethics.
- basic ethics.

Add Question Here

Question 5 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question The basic purpose of professional codes of ethics is to:

Answer
- ✓ educate professionals about sound ethical conduct, provide a mechanism for professional accountability and serve as a catalyst for improving practice.
- protect professionals from lawsuits.
- set standards that will be understood and enforced across all cultures.
- enhance the image of the helping professions.

Add Question Here

Question 6 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question A formal complaint was filed against Harry for sexually harassing a female client. A repeat offender, he was previously warned that a major sanction would be imposed if he continued his unethical actions. The ethics committee of the professional association to which he belongs recommended that Harry:

Answer
- be on probation during his entire career.
- resign from his job.
- work without supervision on his word that he will not harass any client again.
- ✓ be expelled from the organization.

Add Question Here

Question 7 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question The counselor who asks the questions "Am I doing what is best for my client?" rather than "Is this situation unethical?" is functioning from which of the following ethical perspectives?

Answer

Principle ethics
✓ Virtue ethics
Value ethics
Practical ethics

Add Question Here

Question 8 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Virtuous professionals:

Answer

are motivated to do what is right because they feel obligated.
function within their professional code of ethics because they fear the consequences if they do not.
✓ possess vision and discernment, which involves sensitivity, judgment, and understanding and leads to decisive ethical actions.
typically focus on moral issues with the goals of solving a particular dilemma.

Add Question Here

Question 9 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Richard is counseling a male Asian client and is encouraging him to go to college even though he is expected to take care of his aging parents. Richard is violating the following basic moral principle in making ethical decisions:

Answer

✓ non-maleficence.
autonomy.
beneficence.
fidelity.

Add Question Here

Question 10 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Jan, an incest survivor, is covered for six sessions by her insurance. Her counselor is in private practice and knows that Jan needs more sessions. She decides to offer Jan her services pro bono. In making the ethical decision to ensure that her client has equal access to services, the counselor is using the basic moral principal of:

Answer

fidelity.
✓ justice.
beneficence.
veracity.

Add Question Here

Question 11 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Expulsion or suspension of members from professional associations:

Answer

is a major sanction.
cannot be appealed.
is often reported in the journals of the professional associations.
All of the choices
✓ a and c

Add Question Here

Question 12 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question In an attempt to convince her young client to practice safe sex, Valerie fabricated her own statistics and facts about the hazards of unprotected sex. In this instance, Valerie violated the principle of:

Answer

fidelity.
✓ veracity.
beneficence.
justice.

Add Question Here

Question 13 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Which of the following models of ethical decision making focuses primarily on the social aspects of decision making and redefines the process as being interactive rather than intrapsychic?

Answer

✓ social constructionist model transcultural integrative model feminist model
sociocultural model

Add Question Here

Question 14 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question The authors have discovered that many of the issues relevant to beginning professionals

Answer

✓ resurface and take on different meanings at various stages in a professional's life.
are no longer relevant as they gain clinical experience.
originate from neurotic complexes.
are more intense for school counselors as opposed to clinical community counselors and rehabilitation counselors.

Add Question Here

Question 15 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question The authors state their positions throughout the text in order to

Answer
- sway you to adopt their views since they have expertise.
- ✓ help you develop your own position on a variety of ethical and professional issues.
- model the correct way of thinking about ethical matters.
- both a and c

Add Question Here

Question 16 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Why is it imperative for you to become familiar with the guiding principles of the ethics codes and accepted standards of practice of your profession?

Answer
- To receive an A in your ethics course.
- To avoid your malpractice insurance premiums from skyrocketing.
- ✓ To protect the welfare of your clients.
- To enhance your persona as a professional.

Add Question Here

Question 17 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Responsible practice requires that you

Answer
- exercise informed, sound, and responsible judgment.
- demonstrate a willingness to consult with colleagues.
- keep yourself up to date through reading and continuing education.
- ✓ All of the choices.

Add Question Here

Question 18 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question According to the text, which of the following would not be considered a professional mental health worker?

Answer
- Practitioner
- Social worker
- Rehabilitation counselor
- Community worker
- ✓ None of the choices

Add Question Here

Question 19 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Which of the following statements is not true with regard to specialty guidelines?

Answer
- They are available to cover areas not adequately addressed by the general ethics codes.
- Guidelines for psychological practice with older adults is one of the APA's specialty guidelines.
- The APA produced record keeping guidelines.
- ✓ The NASW has not yet produced specialty guidelines to supplement their ethics codes.

Add Question Here

Question 20 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Which of the following statements is true with regard to ethical codes?

Answer
- Issues can be handled solely by relying on ethics codes.
- ✓ Conflicts sometimes emerge within ethics codes as well as among various organizations' codes.
- Ethics codes tend to be proactive rather than reactive.
- Codes do not conflict with institutional policies and practices.

Add Question Here

Question 21 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question When practitioners weigh multiple and often competing demands and goals, they must use

Answer
- their attorneys to help them work through ethical issues.
- their former advisors as sounding boards.
- ✓ their professional judgment.
- common sense.

Add Question Here

Question 22 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question The major duties of regulating boards include which of the following?

Answer
- Determining standards for admission into the profession
- Screening applicants applying for certification or licensure
- Regulating the practice of psychotherapy for the public good
- Conducting disciplinary proceedings involving violations of standards of professional conduct as defined by law
- ✓ All of the choices

Add Question Here

Question 23 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question When a complaint is lodged against a member of a professional organization, the ethics committee

Answer
- ✓ launches an investigation and deliberates on the case, eventually reaching a disposition.
- always dismisses specific charges within the complaint.
- imposes sanctions nine times out of ten.
- transfers the case to law enforcement.

Add Question Here

Question 24 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question When practitioners devote a portion of their professional time and skills to services for which there is no expectation of significant financial return, they are using a sliding scale.

Answer

being financially irresponsible.
✓ providing pro bono services.
suffering from a martyr complex.

Add Question Here

Question 25 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Autonomy refers to

Answer

the promotion of self-determination.
the freedom of clients to be self-governing within their social and cultural framework.
the act of increasing client dependency.
✓ both a and b.

Add Question Here

OK