

Chapter 01 Introduction to Human Diseases

1. Treatment interventions may include:
- a. medications.
 - b. nutritional modifications.
 - c. education.
 - d. all of the above.

ANSWER: d

2. Examples of preventive treatments include all of the following EXCEPT:
- a. physical therapy.
 - b. blood pressure screening.
 - c. the hemoccult stool test.
 - d. mammograms.

ANSWER: a

3. The holistic medicine concept considers which of the following aspects of being?
- a. psychological
 - b. spiritual
 - c. cognitive
 - d. psychological, spiritual, and cognitive

ANSWER: d

4. An example of an acute illness is:
- a. a sore throat.
 - b. arthritis.
 - c. asthma.
 - d. diabetes mellitus.

ANSWER: a

5. An example of an acute disease is:
- a. asthma.
 - b. a middle ear infection.
 - c. low back pain.
 - d. hypertension.

ANSWER: b

Chapter 01 Introduction to Human Diseases

Match each item to the word or phrase listed below.

- a. syndrome
- b. pathogen
- c. etiology
- d. idiopathic
- e. iatrogenic
- f. nosocomial
- g. predisposing
- h. prevalent
- i. homeostasis
- j. prognosis

6. state of sameness that the body strives to maintain

ANSWER: i

7. Down

ANSWER: a

8. cause

ANSWER: c

9. unknown cause

ANSWER: d

10. risk factors

ANSWER: g

11. outcome

ANSWER: j

12. bacteria

ANSWER: b

13. disease acquired from hospital environment

ANSWER: f

14. problem that arose is related to the prescribed treatment

ANSWER: e

15. occurs more frequently

ANSWER: h